The Man Who Invented Christmas (PG) 104 mins

Dir: Bharat Nalluri | 2017

The Man Who Invented Christmas tells the true story of how Charles Dickens came to write A Christmas Carol. Set in 1840s London, Dickens is struggling to come up with fresh ideas. However, when he's inspired by the vision of a story that would fire the hearts of humanity, he sets out to write the book that would reignite his career.

Ethel & Ernest (PG) 94mins

Dir: Roger Mainwood | 2016

Based on the book by Raymond Briggs, this beautiful hand-drawn animation tells the true love story of Raymond's own parents from first meeting in 1928 until their deaths in 1971.

When the Wind Blows (PG) 80mins

Dir: Jimmy Murakami | 1986

The second Raymond Briggs' tv collaboration after The Snowman, this 1986 story about a couple facing a Nuclear blast feels chillingly relevant. Follow James and Hilda Bloggs as they prepare for and then face the imminent explosion using the governments Protect and Survive pamphlet. This is Raymond Briggs for grown-ups.

The Snowman and The Snowman & The Snowdog (U) 24mins

After a young boy makes 'The Snowman' on Christmas Eve, it comes to life to take him on an adventure to the North Pole to meet Santa Claus. 'The Snowman and The Snowdog' was released on the 30th anniversary of The Snowman's release and tells the story of a Snowman and a Snowdog who again come to life after a young boy and his mother move home.

Hunt for the Wilderpeople (12A) 101mins

Dir: Taika Waititi | 2016

This charming comedy from Taika Waititi is about a boy (Julian Dennison) and his foster father (Sam Neill) who become the subjects of a manhunt after they get stranded in the New Zealand wilderness.
