The Old Man & The Gun (12A) 93mins

Dir: David Lowery | 2018

The Old Man & The Gun is based on the true story of Forrest Tucker (Robert Redford), from his audacious escape from San Quentin at the age of 70 to an unprecedented string of heists that confounded authorities and enchanted the public. Wrapped up in the pursuit are detective John Hunt (Casey Affleck), who becomes captivated with Forrest's commitment to his craft, and a woman (Sissy Spacek), who loves him despite his chosen profession.

Die Hard (15) 132mins

Dir: John McTiernan | 1988

Some call Die Hard a Christmas film and some don't but we can all agree that this is essential December viewing! Join John McClane (Bruce Willis), officer of the NYPD, as he tries to save his wife Holly. Twelve terrorists and one cop...that's the way he likes it!

Holiday Inn (U) | 100mins

Dir: Mark Sandrich | 1942

A touch of class is hitting the Square Chapel big screen. At an inn which is only open on holidays, a crooner and a hooper vie for the affections of a beautiful up-and-coming performer. Tap into Irving Berlin's classical musical, starring firm favourites Bing Crosby and Fred Astaire.

Carol (15) | 118mins

Dir: Todd Haynes | 2015

Therese Belivet spots the beautiful, elegant Carol perusing the doll displays in a 1950s Manhattan department store. The two women develop a fast bond that becomes a love with complicated consequences. Starring Cate Blanchett and Rooney Mara.

Sanctuary (15) | 88mins

Dir: Len Collin | 2016

Halifax Film Society present this gently radical film illustrates the injustice of a since-overturned Irish law banning pre-marital sex for people with an intellectual disability. Thoughtful, nuanced and fun, it subverts received ideas about disability in its very approach to filmmaking.
