The Aftermath (15) 109mins

Dir: James Kent | 2019

In 1946, Rachael Morgan (Keira Knightley) arrives in the ruins of Hamburg to be reunited with her husband, Lewis, who is a British colonel charged with rebuilding the shattered city. As they set off for their new home, Rachael is stunned to discover that Lewis has made an unexpected decision: They will be sharing the grand house with its previous owners, a German widower and his troubled daughter. In this charged atmosphere, enmity and grief give way to passion and betrayal.

Fighting with My Family (12A) 108mins

Dir: Stephen Merchant | 2019

Based on the true story of a family from Norwich who strived to join the American Wrestling elite, this film was born out of an unlikely friendship between wrestler turned actor, The Rock, and The Office writer Stephen Merchant. Born into a tight-knit wrestling family, Paige and her brother Zak are ecstatic when they get the once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to try out for the WWE. But when only Paige earns a spot in the competitive training program, she must leave her loved ones behind and face this new cutthroat world alone.

Diana Ross: Her Life, Love & Legacy (U) 119mins

Dir: Steve Binder | 2019

Featuring the remastered 1983 “Live in Central Park” concert.

A milestone in history, marking the 75th birthday of one of the greatest entertainers of all time. The magic of Diana Ross has touched millions of hearts around the world. Her magnificent life and unparalleled career have influenced music, film, fashion and stage with her spirit forever woven in the fabric of humanity.

Dad’s Lunch Box (PG) 76mins

Dir: Masakazu Fukatsu | 2017

The last in our series of films presented by the Japan Foundation. This light drama, based on a true story that went viral on twitter, traces the heart-warming relationship between single father who learns how to cook so that he can make his daughters school lunch. Full of interesting examples of cute bento!
